

BECOMING GOD'S WOMAN

WOMENSLIFE 2024 STUDY A STUDY ON THE TITUS 2 WOMAN

Becoming a Woman of the Word "Teachers of Good Things"

Study Guide 4

It's not enough for us as followers of Jesus to simply say all the right things—we must also live in a way that honors God. In other words, our lives are an open book for others to see and read. Because of this, the Titus 2 woman must be a "teacher of good things." Her life must promote the kind of living that reflects right teaching from the Word of God. Naomi was just this kind of woman! Although she was faced with hard times, her choices caused Ruth not only to follow her but to come to know and love the God of Israel.

DAY 1

PRAY: Read Psalm 119: 119. Pray that as you learn the Word today, you will love what you read.

READ: Titus 2:3–5 and Deuteronomy 6:4–9

WRITE:

After reading this passage of scripture, what did the Spirit speak to your heart? Write it here.

APPLY:

As women there is much we can teach others, but the Word exhorts us to be "teachers of good things." From the scriptures below, what are the good things we much teach?

1. Colossians 3:16: _____

2. 2 Timothy 2:15: _____

DAY 2

PRAY: Read Psalm 119:135. Take a moment to pray and specifically ask the Holy Spirit to quicken you to learn all you can from the Word today.

READ: 1 Timothy 4:16 and James 1:22

WRITE:

After reading this passage of scripture, what did the Spirit speak to your heart? Write it here.

APPLY:

Pause and look at your life. Does your walk match your talk? Consider the scriptures above and share what you learned that challenges you? _____

DAY 3

PRAY: Read Psalm 119:136. Start today with a prayer asking the Lord to help you keep His Word.

READ: Ruth 1:1–17

WRITE:

After reading this passage of scripture, what did the Spirit speak to your heart? Write it here.

APPLY:

Like a true Titus 2 woman, Naomi had disciplined Ruth and taught her how to live in a way that pleased the Lord. How can you be a Naomi to someone in your life? _____

DAY 4

PRAY: Read Psalm 119:138. Pause and thank the Lord for His faithful and righteous Word.

READ: Ruth 1:18–2:2, Ruth 2:19-22 and Ruth 3:6, 16–18

WRITE:

After reading this passage of scripture, what did the Spirit speak to your heart? Write it here.

APPLY:

Naomi faced bitter circumstances in her life, but she didn't let that keep her from teaching good things and giving praise to the Lord. How do you handle yourself in bitter circumstances or dark times? How can you follow Naomi's example and endure through your own hard times?

DAY 5

PRAY: Psalm 119:139. Begin with a prayer asking that you will stay focused and not let anything distract you from God's Word and what it means to you.

READ: Ephesians 4:14–16

WRITE:

After reading this passage of scripture, what did the Spirit speak to your heart? Write it here.

APPLY:

As part of the family of God, we all have a responsibility towards one another. From Romans 10:9–17, what do you need to do to be a teacher of good things? _____
